

Greg Munro

Web Developer

Junior Front-end Developer from the UK, living in Barcelona. Since the pandemic, made a decision it was time for a change and to pursue a career that aligns with my values. After a few months of self studying, I attended Ironack, Barcelona and after 3 intensive months, I proudly graduated with a qualification in Full Stack Web Development.

During my time at the bootcamp, I learnt to create single-page applications using React, JavaScript (ES6), CSS3, HTML5, REST API, Node.js, Express, Testing with Jest & Cypress, MongoDB, Tailwind and Git/Github version control.
