Greg Munro

Web Developer

Young professional living in Barcelona since 2016. In 2020 decided to change career paths due to the pandemic and follow interests in Web Development. In December 2021, proudly graduated from Ironhack Barcelona, after an intensive 3 month web development bootcamp.

During this time, learnt to create one page applications using React, API, Node.js, Express, Mongoose, MongoDB CSS3, HTML5, Tailwind, Bootstrap and Javascript. Before this, professional background was in music-licensing, publishing and talent management. With a previously demonstrated history in live-performance as a session-guitarist.
